Long Says He Stole, Since He Felt Gottfried 'Welshed'

Escapes Assault

Says He Had Suspicion Gottfried Had Not Lived Up to Pact on Percentages

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—A former manager for the Pure Rock Mineral Springs Corp., of Ellenville, N. Y., testified yesterday in Federal District Court that he began stealing money from the firm in 1943 because he believed Harold Gottfried, former president of the concern, had "welshed" on an agreement made between himself and Gottfried.

The witness, in the trial of Gottfried, Joseph Forman, former corporation counsel of Kingston, N. Y., and William T. Stanton of Kingston, a former O.P.A. investigator, on a conspiracy indictment charging falsification of figures used in a sugar ration application for the concern.

Long admitted under cross-examination that he sold 1,250 sugar bags owned by the concern for $125 and pocketed the money. He denied, however, that he sold metal bottle caps to the Elmira Bottling Company, an item charged off on the Pure Rock Company's books against "defective corks."

Earlier, the witness, testifying about his thefts in 1943 and 1944 while Gottfried was in the Coast Guard, said he paid Gottfried $5,000 to stop prosecution. Long also testified during the day that he carried a $1,500 check from Gottfried to Forman after the latter allegedly told him that Stanton "was his man" and that he (Stanton) "could reach the necessary people to fix this thing."

Federal Judge Harry E. Watkins adjourned the trial until 10 Monday morning.

McAlpin M. Brown, 80, of New Paltz, was found dead in the Wallkill creek near the bridge at New Paltz this morning.

Predicts Other Conduits
Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—War Assets Administrator Robert M. Littlejohn predicted today that additional conduits may be built alongside the big inch and little inch pipelines sold yesterday for the movement of natural gas to the eastern seaboard. The lines went to the highest among eleven bidders, the newly formed Texas Eastern Transmission Corp., of Houston, Tex., for $14,127,000 in cash—or about 98 per cent of the original wartime cost to the government.

"The high prices offered were the result of long range vision," Littlejohn told a reporter. "I think that more pipelines—either for gas or oil—may be laid along that right of way."

Schirick Won't Allow Court to Become Reno

A Supreme Court justice says metropolitan New Yorkers are making a "Reno" of the Third Judicial District and he will hear no more of their annulment actions.

Justice Harry E. Schirick of this city said yesterday in Monticello that New York city residents came upstate to avoid publicity in such suits. He cited 20 cases in Kingston on the previous day, according to The Associated Press.

He agreed, however, to continue with an annulment action brought by Mrs. Sylvia Fielder against Seymour Fielder. Both are from New York.

"I'm declining to hear such actions in the future," Schirick announced, "and I believe the rest of the justices in this area agree with me."

"This is getting to be nothing but a Reno," he declared from the bench.

The district comprises Albany, Rensselaer, Columbia, Greene, Schoharie, Ulster and Sullivan counties.

Five Veterans Are Named Firemen By Commissioners

Four Have Minor Physical Disabilities; to Take Posts March 1 in Department

Appointment of five new members to the Kingston Paid Fire Department, including four disabled veterans of World War 2, was announced by the Board of Fire Commissioners at a special meeting last night.

The appointments become effective on March 1.

The new appointees are: Frank B. Hornbeck, 137 Jansen avenue.

Robert Schatzel, 34 Abel street.

Francis Coughlin, 48 Hunter street.

Francis T. Argulewicz, 131 Newkirk avenue.

Robert J. Langling, 82 Henry street.

The first four are with minor disabilities while Langling is also a war veteran with a veterans preference rating.

The selections were made from the Civil Service list certified at the examinations held last fall. The veterans were placed at the top of the list by virtue of veterans preference rating.

Seven on List
A total of seven applicants were on the certified list but two submitted letters of resignation to the Fire Commissioners.

Joseph Carro, of 170 Fairview avenue, was on a special list, having been certified from an old list while he was in service. He could not accept the appointment at the time and was placed on the special list pending his discharge from service.

Following his discharge Mr. Carro decided not to accept the appointment and notified the commissioners that he was going in business for himself.

Withdraw His Name
A similar situation existed in the case of Edward A. Hofbauer, of 646 Delaware avenue, who withdrew his name from the new list which was set up following the examinations. Mr. Hofbauer notified the commissioners that he was at the present time employed by the Board of Education and had decided to retain that job.

According to Fire Chief Joseph Murphy, the disabilities incurred by the four veterans are of a minor nature and will not prevent them from discharging the duties of a fireman.

Robert Schatzel has been serving as substitute fireman for the past several months.

The addition of the five veterans does not change the numerical strength of the Fire Department. Chief Murphy said, and it still stands at 41, including officers.

Bond Rules Talmadge Is Governor of Georgia
McDonough, Ga., Feb. 15 (AP)—Superior Judge Bond Almond held today that Herman Talmadge is governor of Georgia.

In a 7,000-word decision, Judge Almond cited a decision of Superior Judge Walter Hendrix, given last Wednesday, and said: "This court concurs."

The court reviewed at length decisions which Almond said had bearing on Georgia's governorship, and cited Georgia's constitutional section under which the Legislature elected Talmadge to the term of his late father, Eugene Talmadge.

Gurney Is To Battle Arms Slash

Such Cut, He Says, Will Hamper Army, Navy; Brewster Says He Will Fight

Committee Flatly Rejects Compromises on New Appropriation

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.), of the Senate Armed Services Committee announced today he will wage a last ditch battle on the Senate floor against a $6,000,000 budget slash which he declared would "hamstring the army and navy."

A 50 to 22 vote in favor of the cut by the House-Senate Budgetary Committee threatened President Truman with his first major defeat in the new Republican-controlled Congress.

If upheld by the House and Senate the committee decision will trim the President's $31,500,000,000 budget to $31,500,000,000.

Senator Brewster (R-Vt.), predicted in a radio interview last night the Senate will never agree to the reduction recommended by the committee.

"I voted for it because it was that or no reduction at all," he said, "but I will oppose it on the Senate floor and I predict the final figure will be $4,500,000,000."

Po'keepsie Major Killed in Blast; 9 Filipinos Die

Manila, Feb. 15 (AP)—An air force ammunition dump fire and the resulting explosion of 22 tons of dynamite took the lives of a U. S. Army major and nine Filipinos and injured nine others yesterday.

The dynamite went off with a blast that was felt 10 miles away, said Col. William S. Ely, commander of the base at Estancia, more than 50 miles south of Manila.

Maj. James L. Sedore, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., an officer at the base, was killed in the collision of his jeep and a fire truck rushing to the scene. His companion Maj. Peter M. O'Neill, Lynn, Mass., was gravely injured and was brought to Tenth General Hospital in Manila.

The nine Filipinos were killed and eight comrades were injured by the blast which occurred while they were moving explosives from the engineer depot, mentioned by a fire in a nearby airfield area.

The origin of the fire was unknown.

New York National Guard Gets War Department O. K.

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—New York National Guard leaders have been authorized by the War Department to proceed immediately with organization of a number of major units, including the historic 27th and 42nd Infantry Divisions.

Also authorized yesterday were the state headquarters of the National Guard and several basic units of the 52nd Fighter Wing. The state headquarters is the overall command for National Guard units allotted to New York by the War Department.

Lt. Gen. Hugh A. Drum, who now is commander of the New York (State) Guard, will command the reorganized New York National Guard, which is taking over from the war-born State Guard.

Brig. Gen. Ames T. Brown, the state adjutant general, will continue in his present office at Albany.

The 27th Division will be formed upstate, with Maj. Gen. Bernard W. Kearney as division commander.

With Maj. Gen. Cornelius W. Wickersham as commander, the 42nd Infantry Division will be organized in the metropolitan area. Units to be organized immediately include division headquarters and special troops, the 71st Infantry, 106th Infantry (old 23rd) and 165th Infantry (old 69th). The division's artillery, engineer and medical units will be organized after next July 1.

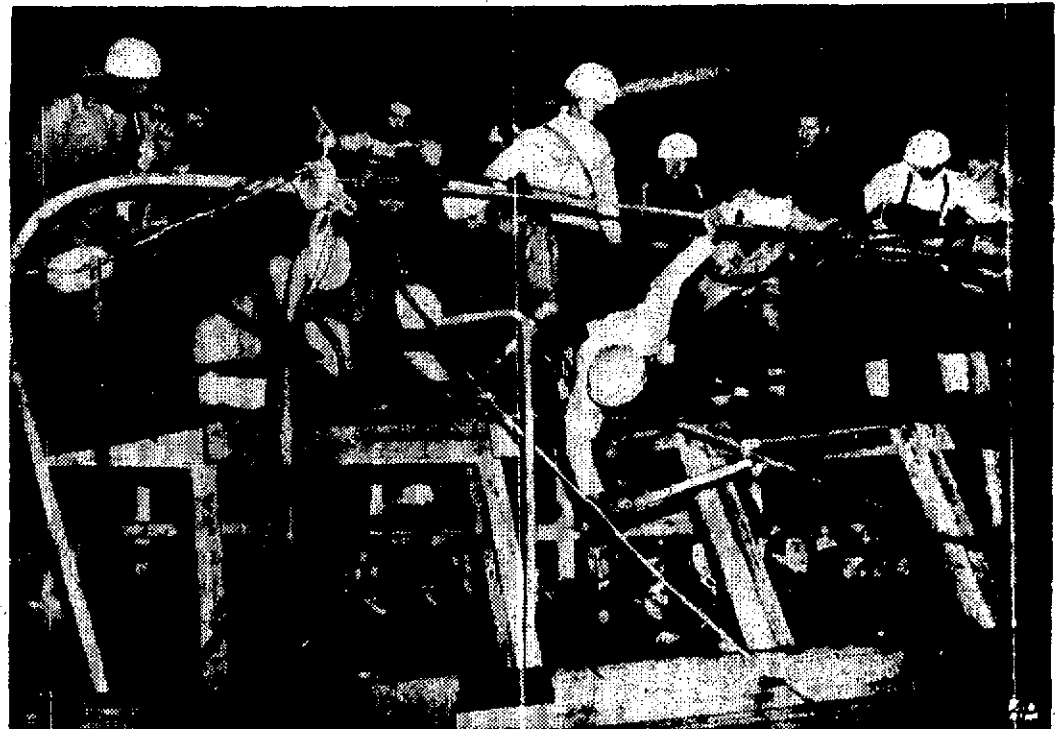

The 27th Infantry Division fought through both world wars as a New York division, and the 42nd Infantry or "Rainbow Division," participated in World War 1 as a composite National Guard division. Included among the latter's infantry regiments was the 165th Infantry, the New York National Guard's old 69th.

Approximately 60,000 ground and air force troops have been accepted by the state for ultimate organization. There will be immediate organization of only those units for which existing armory facilities and air base installations are available.

Niagara Falls, Rochester, Syracuse, Schenectady and Westchester county are proposed locations for the remaining air units now under consideration.

Among other ground force units to be organized are two anti-aircraft brigades, the 105th upstate and the 102nd downstate; and also a large number of supporting service units, including medical, signal, quartermaster, engineer and ordnance troops.

Vandenberg Gives Blunt Statement

Shows Increasing Ire Over Russian Diplomacy With Country

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—A blunt assertion by Senator Vandenberg that it would be a "dangerous misconception" for Russia to underestimate this country's rank among world powers gave a clear sign today of mounting congressional impatience with Soviet diplomacy.

The Michigan Republican, chairman of the powerful Foreign Relations Committee and president pro tem of the Senate, declared in unvarnished language that Russia does not seem to share "our anxiety to establish mutual fair play and good will."

He said the Soviet Union (1) "completely ignored" four American requests in the past year to discuss settlement of lend-lease accounts and (2) paid no attention to a State Department note suggesting negotiations for final disposition of 125 lend-leased U. S. merchant ships.

Terming these "just a couple of symbolic incidents" in U. S.-Russian relations, Vandenberg last night told guests at a dinner for the Michigan congressional delegation.

"I respectfully suggest that such experiences are not calculated to fertilize mutual good will and understanding."

He said it would be neither friendly nor undignified for this country to "insist upon somewhat prompt official mail from Moscow."

No Way-Station
"After all," Vandenberg went on, "Washington is not an inconsequential way-station on an unimportant RED. If we allow others to think it is, they may get the habit; and that could be a dangerous misconception for them as well as us."

There was no indication whether the Michigan senator's address Continued on Page Four

Death Comes at Malden, Massachusetts, Where He Was Living With Niece

The Rev. Arthur Stanley Cole, D. D., aged 75 years, who was pastor of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church for 29 years when he retired on Sunday, November 3, 1940, died today at Malden, Mass., where he had been residing with his niece.

Dr. Cole assumed the pastorate of the local church on July 1, 1911, succeeding the late Philip B. Strong. The year 1940, in which he retired, marked his 45th year in the active ministry of the Baptist Church.

Born in New York city, Dr. Cole was educated in Columbia University and served churches in Rome, N. Y., and Rahway, N. J., before coming to this city.

Funeral services will be held from the Albany Avenue Baptist Church on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

During more than a quarter of a century the deceased had been pastor of the local church, he had been active in the religious and civic life of the city.

Interested in the Boy Scout movement, he served as chairman of the Kingston District of the Ulster-Greene Council and was honored by the Council with the Silver Beaver.

For a number of years Dr. Cole was head of the Ulster County Bible Society.

Burial will be in Wiltwyck Cemetery. Friends may call at the parlors of A. Carr & Son, 1 Pearl street, on Monday before noon. The casket will not be opened in the church.

No. 5 School Mothers Favor Pay Raises for Teachers
Following their tea and during a business meeting Thursday afternoon, members of the Mother's Club of No. 5 School voted to communicate with the Kingston Board of Education requesting favorable action on teachers' requests for salary increases.

The course was decided after a letter had been read from the teachers' union soliciting the aid of the club in the drive for pay raises. After going on record as favoring higher salaries, the women voted to send a letter to the Board of Education expressing their stand.

A committee was appointed by the club to investigate the possibilities of making improvements to the lunch room of the school.

Mrs. William Paulus reported favorably on the food sale to raise money for the purchase of eye glasses for needy children.

Mediator Is To Be in City Mon., 1 P.M.

Fred T. Ley Says He Has Been President Since 1909, Except for One Year

Proud of Record

Labor Relations Have Been Excellent, He Says, and Cites Union

Fred T. Ley, of New York, president of the Kingston Transportation Company, in a letter to George M. Thomas, vice president of the bus drivers' union, dated February 14, challenges two statements made by Mr. Thomas early this week with respect to wage negotiations between the bus drivers and the company. At the same time Mr. Ley held out hopes for fair and prompt settlement.

Mr. Ley charges that the blame for the delay in negotiations between the bus drivers and the company "has been due almost entirely, I believe, because an official of your union was busily engaged elsewhere, and therefore, the delay should not in fairness be charged to the company." The name of the union official is not mentioned.

Mr. Ley further points out that when it became evident that to achieve an agreement might be a difficult and long drawn out affair, the company agreed to the union's suggestion that a mediator be called in.

Mediator to Come
A representative of the State Mediation Service will be in Kingston on Monday at 1 o'clock to meet with representatives of both sides.

Regarding Mr. Thomas' statement that the union found it "impossible to continue negotiations with out of town people who do not care to employ the basic principle of collective bargaining," Mr. Ley said:

"I have been the president of Kingston Consolidated R. R. Company since 1909, and of the Kingston Transportation Company since it was organized, except for the period between September 1945 and September 1946. With the exception of the one year period, I have discussed with our local officials and approved every decision made affecting wages, hours, and working conditions of our men and the contracts executed with them."

Proud of Relations
"I have directed the affairs of the company," Mr. Ley continues, "and I take a great deal of pride in your statement relative to the excellent management-labor relations enjoyed in the past, and wish to assure you that it is my earnest hope and wish that they will continue."

Mr. Ley says that he is very hopeful that the matter will be decided very promptly and the settlement will be fair to both parties.

"I consider the good will of our employees a very valuable asset, equal to that of the good will of our customers—the public," the letter concludes.

To Detail Plan
British Views on Palestine Are Expected to Be Given Next Week

London, Feb. 15 (AP)—Britain's plan for bringing the Palestine question before the United Nations is expected to be made known next week, informed observers said today.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech Jones are to report in the House of Commons then on their latest de facto negotiations with Holy Land Arabs and Jews, last of a series begun in September.

Bevin's announcement on the issue yesterday said only that "since no proposals put forward by his majesty's government had proved acceptable as a basis for further discussion, his majesty's government had decided to refer the whole problem to the United Nations."

Mrs. Rocco Sues For $200,000 in Loss of Her Leg

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—Mrs. Olga Rocco, alleging that the police "refused and neglected" to protect her, from her husband, has made a $200,000 claim on the city for the leg she lost in the bizarre "camera gun" shooting in a Times Square subway station on New Year's Eve.

The pretty 28-year-old woman, now recovering in a hospital, charges the police were negligent in not providing protection after an earlier attempt on her life, when she was shot through a window of her home last November 1.

Her lawyers filed a petition for damages with Mayor William O'Dwyer, it was revealed yesterday.

Her estranged husband, Alphonse, whom she blamed for masterminding the shooting in the subway station, later was shot to death by police in a manhunt near Grand Gorge in the Catskills.

Mrs. Rocco was hit by a shotgun blast, fired by 19-year-old Pearl Lusk who told police she believed she was using a camera.

Miss Lusk, who was exonerated by authorities, said Rocco employed her, telling her he was an insurance investigator, that the "camera" could take X-ray pictures and that the woman he wanted photographed was carrying stolen jewels.

One of Mrs. Rocco's lawyers, Samuel Douglas, said the petition for damages was not a court action. He said the city owed her "a moral obligation to compensate her for the serious injuries resulting directly from its neglect to provide her with protection."

Mt. Vernon Man Charged With Attempted Pay Envelopes Theft

Stanford, Feb. 15 (AP)—Edward L. Wise, 35, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., identified by Chief of Police John B. Brennan as an advertising solicitor, was being held in bonds of $100,000 here today on a charge of theft.

Wise was arrested, Brennan said, as he fled from the office of the Coudens Storage Company here yesterday after he was discovered by a company foreman in the act of rifling an unlocked safe. Brennan said that "several" pay envelopes of the company were discovered in Wise's pockets.

The man was captured by two pedestrians as he fled through a parking lot, pursued by the foreman.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Feb. 15—Mr. and Mrs. George Secor, who have occupied the Peter Mastrotta main house on Route 28 for the past two months, have gone to Connecticut to reside, George, while here, continued his war-interrupted high school studies in Kingston. The couple were married in California following Mr. Secor's return from naval service in Pacific waters.

An event of significant interest to local war veterans will be the meeting Monday evening, February 17, of the new Olive Legion Post at the Odd Fellows hall in Olive Bridge. The post will receive its charter and there will be refreshments served upon this occasion. It is understood that Eugene Sentinella, a former Shokan boy, who now lives on the west side of the reservoir, was one of the veterans largely instrumental in organizing Ulster county's newest Legion post.

This columnist is frequently asked to secure back copies of The Freeman by readers who desire to send clippings of local stories and news items to friends in distant places. The writer is glad to accommodate in this matter but feels that the reader would be more likely to get his copies if he went directly to the uptown Freeman office for them. The office has only a few unsold papers each day and as we go to town but irregularly, the Freemans may be all gone when we get there. Telephone company linemen again were busy in the village center during the week. Tuesday, a new cable was being strung on the Route 28 trunkline poles and excavations were made for a connection between the line and the automatic telephone central building.

The Ashokan Methodist Church weekly bulletin has been appearing in a new and improved format since the Rev. Wayne Williams took up his duties as pastor of the Ashokan, Glenford and West Hurley churches. Last Sunday's issue, for example, had for its cover page an excellent picture of a line of Boy Scouts marching out of the entrance of a stone church (which is the Ashokan Methodist Church building). The picture was captioned "A Scout Is Reverent." These bulletins are made possible by the purchase of a new duplicating machine by the Methodist charge. It was announced in the latest bulletin that the next New York Annual Conference of the church would take place May 22 in Poughkeepsie.

Friday, February 17, 1937, there began a blizzard which probably ranks next in severity to the big one of March, 1888. It began to snow shortly after dark and on the next day there was a 10-inch blanket in the Shokan area. On the 19th, it snowed again in the afternoon, with cold winds and badly drifted snow following. Nearly every one was pushing a shovel on February 20, but got up in disgust when the snow fell on the following day. Trains were delayed by huge drifts and it was days before the people of the Coons district and other outlying sectors were able to drive their sleighs to the village. There were other sizeable blizzards but these for the most part have been forgotten or have been obscured by the tall yarns spun about the blizzard of '38. The writer recalls, for instance, a "blizzard" which practically isolated the old village in 1868. He recalls this one best, perhaps, because he happened to be in Winchell's Store when the message came over the Western Union branch line instrument: "The Battleship Maine has blown up in Havana Harbor!" This news of great import, combined with the great storm, finked plenty to talk about during the remainder of the winter.

The town board is reported deadlocked over the choice of a justice of the peace to succeed the late Frank Manley of Olive Bridge. The Democrats on the board are said to favor Lester Barringer for the office, while the Republicans have proposed the name of Lester Davis. The resultant vote thus far has served to continue the vacancy. Joseph Ogden, a war veteran of service in the Pacific area, is reported to have entered a veterans hospital for treatment. The former Thomas Matland property on the reservoir road has been sold to out-of-town people. This is the second time the place has changed hands within a year. A few more excerpts from the old farm account book kept by one of our readers' grandfathers in Olive: Debt entry, April 4, 1853—William Christiana, by one day's work laying stone wall, 50 cents. June 28, 1851, to Elijah Van Velsion, by laying 15 rods of stone wall at 31 cents a rod, $4.65. E. V. again, 1852, by chopping six cords of wood, $3.00. June 23, 1851, sold, ten pounds and a half of butter at 15 cents, $1.50.

The setting was typical. Special attention was called to the bedspreads made by Shirley Norton and Marion Rudolph of the needle trade class. The time might have been the present according to the continuing and the conversation about new eras, communism versus democracy and Russia. Between the acts the school orchestra under the direction of Roy Edelstein, who has been working with this group this year, played several selections. Mrs. Davis Is First War Bride Adopted By Girl Scout Troop

Mrs. Clifford Davis, English war bride, whose home is in Port Ewen, is the first foreign war bride to be adopted by a Girl Scout Troop in Ulster County. The plan to adopt a war bride in order to become better acquainted with other countries and the women who have come to live in America was suggested recently by the Ulster County Council of Girl Scouting.

Troop 51 of Port Ewen under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Beecher, assisted by Mrs. Elting Ellsworth and Mrs. Ole Christensen, immediately decided to adopt Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Davis had been an assistant leader of the troop last year prior to her employment at the Herzog store on Wall street. She had written for information and letters from the Girl Guides in England. She will be formally received into the troop Tuesday night.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Birthday Party
The monthly meeting of the Leaders' Club was held at St. Ann's Convent February 3. A report was given by Mrs. Casper Souers, president, on her trip to Camden, N. J., where she attended the Regional Volunteer Trainers' course at the Watt-Whitman, February 2 to 3.

Further plans were made for the 35th Birthday Party program, to be held at the municipal auditorium, March 15, from 2 to 4 p. m. Each troop will make its contribution to the birthday party to the Juliet Lowe Friendship Fund, the money to be used toward securing and sending uniforms and other articles such as school supplies, to needy girl guides and girl scouts in foreign countries. It is hoped that each Girl Scout will contribute as many pennies as she is old to the fund. Refreshments were served by the Convent and enjoyed by all.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Tax Benefits
Cheney, Wash., Feb. 15 (AP)—Larrie Carrothers of Seattle, Eastern Washington College student, had to go all the way to Europe to appreciate Washington State taxes.

He was with a group of soldiers transporting a load of former Dachau prisoners from Prague to Vienna, recalled, when his outfit was challenged by a Russian guard.

"In my wallet was a tax receipt with the Washington seal," he said. "It satisfied the Russians and on we went."

Wrong Number

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—She only wanted a cab, but found herself surrounded by fire apparatus.

A very frustrated woman explained to police that a hotel clerk told her there was a taxi call box just outside the door. The clerk neglected to mention, however, that there was a fire alarm box, too.

Another unpopular type of hit-and-run motorist, is the one who hits the grocer for credit and runs to the filling station to spend his cash.

Anger was exuding from every "pore and pimple" of the woman as she confronted the butcher. She (demanding)—What's the meaning of this? I found bits of rubber in my hamburger! Butcher—I'm sorry, madam. Just another instance of how the horse is being replaced by the automobile.

Grit says: "The safety enthusiast looks forward to the day when the new cars will roll off the assembly line faster than off the highway."

Dialog used on used-car lot: Car Seller to prospective buyer:—What! You offer me only $2,000 when it sold for $1,400 now?

It is suggested that driving license be issued only to drivers who know how to drive. What? And have grass grow in the streets?

She—Don't you love an evening like this? Hubby—Oh, that's very nice of you, darling.

Wife—Here's a bottle of hair-tonic, dear. Hubby—Yes, I want you to give it to your stenographer at the office. Her hair is coming out rather badly on your coat.

A man was taking an examination for a driver's license and among the questions asked him was: "What would you do if the driver of a car in front of you put an arm out and moved it up and down?" "That all depends," replied the would-be driver. "Is the driver a man or a woman?"

Employer—When you called up my wife and told her I would be detained at the office, and would not be home until very late, what did she say?

Stenographer—She said: "Can I depend on that?"

Every man loves justice at another man's house; nobody cares for it at his own.

Bookkeeper—Wonder why the boss keeps that stenographer. She can't spell.

Clerk—No; casting a spell is her strong point.

It is just as well that justice is blind; she might not like some of the things done in her name if she could see them.

The wife who drives from the back seat isn't any worse than the husband who cooks from the dining-room table.

Professor—You missed by class yesterday, didn't you? Unsubdued Student—Not in the least, sir, not in the least.

Harry—Well, how's your companion marriage working out? Jerry—Terrible—I've lost my wife's address.

Calvin Coolidge had humor and sense enough to escape the indignation of the press which afflicted a good many of our Presidents. Awakening from a nap in the middle of a presidential executive day, he opened his eyes, grinned and asked a friend: "Is the country still here?"

Farmer—Your mother could.

Two Cars, Sign, Damaged In Uptown Collision

Two cars and a street traffic sign were damaged but both drivers escaped personal injury and there were no arrests in a collision that occurred at the corner of Clinton Avenue and John Street about 1 o'clock this morning.

The accident occurred, police say, when Philip Chase of 295 Adams Street, Abington, Mass., driving north on Clinton Avenue in a Dodge sedan, was struck in the left rear as he was making a left turn into John Street. The driver of the other vehicle, a 1939 Buick sedan, was Robert Westfall of 554 Albany Avenue.

bumper. The street traffic sign at the intersection also was damaged.
